Invocation: The REv. Edward S. Vaught, Forest Park United Methodist Church
2100 Kentucky, Ft. Wayne

Almighty God, thou has created us to be thy people, and to live out that destiny within communities. We discover neither our full humanity nor purpose in life apart from thee, or apart from trusting relationships with other people.

Thou hast given to us great amounts of talent. We have resurces and power to bring about change unknown previously in history. We have gained increasing insight in communication skills. We have become well trained in the art of negotiation. We have learned to value the tool of honest, debate, even to the acceptance of needed compromise that the higher goals may not be lost.

Truely, we are grasping our humanity in ways we believe are pleasing to thee.

Yet, we do not presume to assemble relying totally on ourselves. Our personal histories have taught us that thou art at work in and through our community meeting, our voted decisions. We would ask of thee that we might increase our sensitivity to thy will for Fort Wayne.

Bless those of our City Council who give of themselves far beyond ~~what~~ community thanks or reward. May their blessing be found in a better community, and in the knowledge that thou art with them, especially during those lonely times of hard decision.

We ~~are~~ thy people; thou art our God! Amen
